

MUS 181 – Small Ensemble; Strings

[Credit] Weekly Rehearsals: Thursday 6:00 – 7:30 pm | Public Performance Required

Course Overview:

Sharpen your string performance skills in a dynamic, collaborative ensemble setting

- Focus on performance techniques for string instruments
- Explore ensemble literature, music theory & interpretation
- Weekly rehearsals plus required public performance
- May be repeated once (2 credits max – check Financial Aid eligibility)

Directed by Professor Fangfang Li

Internationally Acclaimed Conductor and Educator

Lead orchestras across Asia, Europe, Australia, and the Americas

Founder of music institutions & festivals

Educational Background:

- B.A., Music College of Beijing Capital Normal University
- Diploma, Wind Ensemble Conducting – New England Conservatory of Music (under Frank L. Battisti)
- M.M. in Conducting – University of Arizona School of Music (under Gregg Hanson)

Limited seats available – Enroll now!

Visit <https://www.pima.edu/admission/apply-to-pima/index.html>

Or contact the Music Department for more info.